The subject, "The Best Treatment for Lying," was discussed by a member. Seme favor corporal punishment and others favored different kinds of punishment.

Night Session.

The night session opened promptly at 7:30. The subject, "How Long Should the Dull Boy be Kept in Any One Grade?" was opened by F. H. Crago, who said he would not keep him longer than two years in any grade. If he were kept longer it would discourage him.

Superintendent Lewis spoke on the same subject, saying we ought to be sure to know whether the boy is dull or not. Some dull in one thing may be very bright in another.

A male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Cole, Hopkins and the two Balechan brothers and the two sales.

Haughton brothers, sang two selec-tions, which were toudly applauded. Miss Midgie Taylor was the pianist. Miss Midgie Taylor was the planist.

The discussion was then continued.
The subject, "Home-Study," was opened by Superintendent Mertz, of Steubenville. He favored home study. The pupil should be given only certain things to study at home. Superintendent Raymond, of East Liverpool, spoke on the same subject. We should have study periods in our schools. If homestudy is necessary, we should have it.

Professor H. B. Work, principal of the Wheeling high schot. Invocad spending the latter part of the time given to recitation in assigning, and studying the lesson for the next day. Superintendent Raymond had spoken of studying the entire recitation period one day and resities the Superintendent Raymond had spoken of studying the entire recitation period one day and reciting the next, though thought Professor Work's plan would perhaps do just as well. The teachers during this study period are directing the pupils in how to study the lesson.

Other subjects were discussed and throughout the entire session great interest was manifested. The following

New Coal Bank. Henry Helling, one of the Helling brothers engaged in the coal business in the west end of Martin's Ferry, Is open ing a new bank near the present bank, which is in operation. It is stated that it is impossible to get a sufficient amount of coal out of the one bank to supply the trade.

No Jollification in Martin's Ferry. The Republicans of Martin's Ferry will have no follification in that city over the recent Republican victory. While there is a great feeling of Joy among the Martin's Ferryites they will not attempt anything of the kind, but will turn out en mass Monday evening and assist in making the demonstration in this city a rouser. Both marching chubs and Rough Elders will probably turn out in full.

Bridgeport Club to Jollify.

It is the intention of the McKinley and Roosevelt club, of Bridgeport, to take part in the Republican demonstration, they will be accompanied by a large crowd of rooters who will assist in making the occasion one to be remembered.

The street car company will string the wires laong Lincoln avenue, south of the Astnaville bridge, in Bridgeport, to-day, and expect to have the cars running through on the west track the picted two more cars will be put on the Martin's Ferry division, making eight in all, and that city will have a car leaving every eight minutes.

passed into the hands of the men who passed into the hands of the men who subsequently secured a franchise for the electric line now in use. He was an active Odd Fellow and one of the old standbys for the Turners. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Serviers by Rev. L. M. Weiss and Rev. Mr. Ulfert, of Wheeling. Interment in Rose Hill cemetery, Belling.

Dazed or Hazed.

The Republicans who left their party on the sliver issue and then hugged the delusion of imperialism with it year are still wondering what is the matter with the great multiude of pa-tricitic people in America. To say they are dazed doesn't cover it; they feel more as if they had been "hazed."

Bishop Vincent's Visit.

Bishop Boyd Vincent will not visit the Episcopal church at Bellaire, as was announced, but will come the latter part of the month, when there will be a class for confirmation. Soliciting Donations. Rev. W. A. Williams, president of
